Trainee Durations

Trainee programs are available for 6, 9 and 12 months.

Monthly Stipend

The trainee income ranges from $1750.00 - $ 2850.00 USD per month, depending on the company's hourly wage policy. Generally, weekly hours are approximately 32-40 hours per week; however, if the trainee is asked to perform more than 32-40 hours per week, overtime payment will be provided.

Visa Process

Trainees participate in this program with the J-1 Program /Bridge USA Program visa and regulations of US State Department. Necessary assistance to obtain the J-1 Program /Bridge USA Program visa (applying and obtaining the DS-2019 Form) will be provided by USEH. To validate the J-1 Program /Bridge USA Program visa, each applicant must apply to the U.S. Consulate/ Embassy individually. The ultimate decision to validate the J-1 Program /Bridge USA Program visa belongs to the U.S. Consulate/ Embassy.

Travel Arrangements

Trainees are responsible for their own airfare; however, USEH consultants determine the departure date. USEH can provide assistance in obtaining discounted airfares.

Housing

Usually the host company provides housing options at the trainee's expense. If the host company does not provide assistance for housing, USEH will provide the necessary assistance in finding temporary or permanent housing at the trainee's expense.

Professional Development (Training)

Trainees usually receive professional training seminars conducted by their host companies. The trainees are provided with a certificate at the end of the seminars, depending on the regular attendance and success.
